

Step 6:

Implementation

In September, reflection is going to be very important.

Regular discussions about how the new systems are being implemented and where staff feel less confident will be essential. This information needs to be used to make tweaks to systems and inform CPD.

It will take time for things to run smoothly but the most vital aspect, especially in the first few weeks (as always) is that staff get to know each child as well as they possibly can.

